

I am writing in opposition to the FCC consideration of weaking the Indiana Telephone Privacy Law by allowing business to contact me unsolicited. If I want them to call me, I'll give them my number and permission. Do not let big business interest trump individual privacy. Demonstrate that you work for the people and NOT the corporations. If anything, the law is not strong enough!!!